

The segment flies	3
1. Trends in the trend segment: time for visions?	4
2. More operators, even more concepts.....	10
2.1 Dominance in primary cities remains – locations at a glance	11
2.2 The chains are coming: Expansions and new concepts.....	19
2.3 Diversity through service: positioning operators	22
Interview with Joyn: Design alternative in micro living?	28
Interview with aparthotels Adagio: Smart to premium	29
2.4 The guest as tenant: residential housing concepts	30
2.5 Transactions in the serviced apartment market	31
2.6 Even more chances: the markets in Austria and Switzerland	33
3. The 2019 market survey.....	34
3.1 Summary of the results of the market survey.....	36
3.2 Assessment of the market development	36
3.3 The apartment offer.....	38
3.4 The occupancy rate.....	40
3.5 The rates.....	41
3.6 The length of stay.....	43
3.7 Target groups and international guests.....	44
3.8 Advance booking deadlines and reservation options.....	46
3.9 Services.....	48
3.10 Contract models.....	49
4. The future of the future markets – forecasts for the segment	50
4.1 Small-scale living	52
4.2 Large-scale living	54
4.3 Opportunities and scenarios	56
5. Basics and Terminologies	58
5.1 Basic concepts.....	59
5.2 Basic principles of building law	64
5.3 Target groups.....	67
5.4 History of the segment	68
Imprint.....	70

Title note: ©Groß & Partner / UNStudio – Another Hyatt House for Frankfurt: The HR Group will operate 180 serviced apartments from the 11 to 19 floors in the 178 m high residential tower of the Four Frankfurt quarter. The Hyatt House is expected to open in 2023, with Groß & Partner acting as project developer.